Section 8
COMPOSITION AND TERM OF OFFICE

(1) The Supervisory Board shall consist of six members, four of which shall represent shareholders and two of which shall represent employees. The four shareholder representatives on the Supervisory Board shall be appointed by the General Meeting. The two employee representatives on the Supervisory Board shall be appointed to the SE Supervisory Board by the employees according to the provisions of the agreement on employee participation in an European company (SE) concluded under the German law governing the involvement of employees in a European company (SE-Beteiligungsgesetz, SEBG) in its most recent version.

(2) Unless the General Meeting stipulates a shorter period for individual members elected by it, Members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected for the period up to the close of the General Meeting that resolves to approve the actions of the respective Supervisory Board members for the fifth fiscal year following the start of the period of office, no longer however than for six years. The fiscal year in which the election takes place shall not count towards this period. Re-election is possible.

(3) When appointing Supervisory Board members, the General Meeting may also appoint replacement members for the Supervisory Board. Replacement members shall become members of the Supervisory Board in accordance with a sequence to be determined at the time of their appointment if Supervisory Board members whom they have been appointed to replace depart before their term of office has expired. The office of a replacement member appointed to replace a departed Supervisory Board member shall expire as soon as a successor is appointed for the departed Supervisory Board member at the conclusion of the next General Meeting or the one thereafter; if this does not apply, the office of the replacement Supervisory Board member shall terminate when the term of office of the departed Supervisory Board member expires. If a Supervisory Board member appointed by the employees departs before his/her term of office has expired, he/she shall be replaced by the replacement member nominated for this eventuality under the provisions of the agreement on employee participation in an European company (SE) concluded under SEBG in its most recent version.

(4) If a Supervisory Board member is elected to take the seat of a departed Supervisory Board member, the office of the Supervisory Board member shall terminate when the term of office of the departed Supervisory Board member expires. If an election held to replace a departed Supervisory Board member who departed prematurely would have the effect of removing a replacement member and leaving a vacant seat any resolution concerning such election shall require a three-quarters majority of all votes cast.

(5) Members of the Supervisory Board elected by the shareholders may resign from their office, even without good cause, subject to a period of notice of three months. The Company may waive such period of notice. The Supervisory Board member in question shall declare his or her resignation in writing to the Executive Board and shall notify the chairperson of the Supervisory Board thereof. The right to resign for good cause shall not be affected.

(6) Members of the Supervisory Board elected by the shareholders may be dismissed from office prior to the expiry of their term of office. The dismissal of members of the Supervisory Board prior to expiry of their term of office shall be subject to a majority vote of three quarters of votes cast.

Vice chairpersons shall assume the rights and duties of the chairperson of the Supervisory Board if the chairperson is unable to attend. If several vice chairpersons are elected, the order of precedence determined at the time of their election shall apply.

Section 10

MEETINGS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

(2) Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened and their form determined by the chairperson of the Supervisory Board with written/electronic notice of 14 days. The 14-day period does not include the day on which the invitation is sent and the day of the meeting itself. In urgent cases, the chairperson may reduce the period of notice and convene the meeting orally, by telephone or by other customary telecommunication means.

(3) The invitation to the meeting must set forth the agenda. If the agenda was not announced in due form, resolutions pertaining to the agenda may only be adopted if no Supervisory Board member objects. In such cases absent members of the Supervisory Board shall be provided with an opportunity to object to a resolution or to cast their vote in writing, by fax, computer fax, telegram, or electronically (e.g. e-mail), during a video conference or by other customary telecommunication means within a reasonable period of time stipulated by the chairperson. Resolutions shall only take effect if the absent members of the Supervisory Board do not object to or have approved the resolution within the stipulated period.

Section 11

RESOLUTIONS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

- (1) As a rule, resolutions shall be adopted during Supervisory Board meetings. Resolutions may also be adopted outside of meetings in writing, by fax, computer fax, telegram, or electronically (e.g. e-mail) or by other customary telecommunication means if so ordered by the chairperson. Objections expressed by one or several members are as such immaterial. Such resolutions shall be recorded by the chairperson in writing and sent to all members of the Supervisory Board. The following provisions shall apply correspondingly to votes taken outside meetings.
- (2) The Supervisory Board shall have a quorum if at least four Supervisory Board members are present and all members have been correctly invited according to Section 10 Paragraph (2). Members shall be deemed to have participated in the resolution if they abstain from voting.
- (3) Absent Supervisory Board members may participate in resolutions tabled by the Supervisory Board by having their written votes submitted to the Supervisory Board by other members thereof. Absent Supervisory Board members may also cast their votes on resolutions during the meeting or within a reasonable period of time stipulated by the chairperson after the meeting by fax, computer fax, telegram or electronically (e.g. e-mail) or by other customary telecommunication means, including but not limited to videoconferences, unless objected to by a member attending the meeting. Objections cannot, however, be raised if all the absent and attending members of the Supervisory Board can see and hear each other at the same time and are able to discuss the resolution item.
- (4) Unless statutory laws require otherwise, resolutions passed by the Supervisory Board shall be adopted with a simple majority of the votes cast. Abstentions shall not be counted as votes cast. In the event of a tie, the resolution or nomination proposal shall be deemed rejected; the chairperson shall not have the casting vote according to Section 50 (2), Sentence 1 SE-VO (SE Regulation).
- (5) The chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall be authorized to make declarations of intent in the name of the Supervisory Board. If the chairperson is unavailable, the vice chairperson shall be authorized to make such declarations.

(6) The discussions and resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be recorded in written minutes that must be signed by the chairperson or, in the case of resolutions adopted outside of meetings, by the person who directed such vote.

(7) A copy of said minutes shall be sent to all members of the Supervisory Board.
(7) Court action against invalid or illegal resolutions adopted by the Supervisory Board may only be taken within a cut-off period of one month of the meeting at which the relevant resolution is adopted or, if later, one month after knowledge of such adoption is obtained.

(2) The provisions of these Articles of Incorporation shall apply accordingly to Supervisory Board committees unless, in compliance with statutory provisions, the rules of procedure of the Supervisory Board stipulate otherwise. The chairperson of the committee shall have the casting vote at votes and elections.

(3) Declarations of intent adopted by a Supervisory Board committee shall be issued by the chairperson in the name of the committee.

(4) The Supervisory Board shall be regularly informed about the work of the committees.

Section 14

In addition, EUR 5,000 shall be paid to members of Supervisory Board committees per committee, with twice that amount payable to the Chairpersons of those committees per Chairperson.

The fixed remuneration outlined above shall be payable in four equal installments, each to be disbursed at the end of the respective quarter.

(2) In addition, each member of the Supervisory Board shall receive an earnings-linked variable remuneration in the amount of 0.05 percent of the consolidated earnings after taxes as disclosed in the approved Consolidated Financial Statements of Wacker Neuson SE for the fiscal year in question. For the purposes of determining the earnings-linked bonus, four percent of the share capital of the company will be deducted from the consolidated earnings after taxes – in application of Section 113 (3) AktG. The respective earnings-linked variable remuneration must never exceed 0.75 times the respective fixed remuneration (including committee remuneration) outlined in Section (1), however.

The variable remuneration falls due for payment when the Supervisory Board passes a resolution to approve the Consolidated Financial Statements for the fiscal year in question.

(3) Should members of the Supervisory Board leave the Board during the course of a fiscal year, their remuneration shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Should a Supervisory Board member cease to perform a function that qualified for additional remuneration, the last sentence shall apply accordingly to the portion of that member's remuneration associated with the function in question.

(4) The Supervisory Board members shall receive a flat-rate allowance of EUR 1,500 for every Supervisory Board meeting they attend. The meeting attendance fees are payable at the end of the respective quarter.

The members of the Supervisory Board are also entitled to reimbursement of expenses, including sales tax / VAT incurred in connection with Supervisory Board duties.

(5) The company shall insure at its own expense the Supervisory Board members against civil and criminal proceedings, covering also the legal costs involved in defense proceedings for action taken in relation to their mandates, and shall take out a suitable directors and officers' (D&O) liability insurance policy with this aim.

Section 16 Paragraph (4) Sentence 3 of the German Securities Acquisition and Takeover Act (WpÜG) remains unaffected. On the day of the General Meeting and during the six days prior to the General Meeting, no new entries or deletions will be made in the share register.

(2) Cut-off periods and dates counted back from the day of the General Meeting shall not include the day of the General Meeting. A postponement from a Saturday,

Unless at least half of the share capital is represented, changes to these Articles of Incorporation require a 2/3 majority of the votes cast. Abstentions shall not be counted as votes cast.
